Need Extra Money For Christmas? Here Are Some Ideas?

By Mary Nebotakis, Managing Director, Natloans, B. Eco, Dip. Financial Services

The Holiday Season is very nearly upon us. Whether it be money for Christmas, Chanukah, or any other celebration, a lot of folks may find themselves a little out of pocket when the day rolls by. Maybe your kids have written up their wish lists, or your parents have made a request for lunch, or your spouse has come up with some ideas for decorations, and altogether; the burden has proven to be just too much.

Maybe your family lives far away from you and can't afford to fly out to share the holiday with them. Or maybe it's not any of those things; perhaps you have your eyes on a gift for yourself! A new car, a boat, a bike or even a holiday, but just don't have the budget to make it all happen. What can you do?

Here Are Some Options

Of course, you could try to save, but more likely than not, the time for that has already passed. You could ask for money, but asking to get in order to give seems, on its face, somewhat counterintuitive. So what does that leave you with?
